DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Newly submitted claim 13 directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: the newly added claim is sub-combination of the originally filed claims/combination, as the new added claim is referring to a transducer element comprises a sliding detector element entering in a dosing chamber to measure a height reached by the quantity of pharmaceutical material in the dosing chamber, while the combination is referring to means for detecting and volumetrically checking the quantity of pharmaceutical material filled into capsule body under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claim 13 is withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-5 and 9-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the admitted prior art (Background of the invention) in view of Trebbi (U.S. Patent No. 6,327,835).

Applicant has admitted that a capsule filling machine is old and well known (Background Art; specification page 1, lines 12-21). The admitted art does not disclose detecting means to check out quantity of pharmaceutical material filled into the capsule body. However, Trebbi discloses a similar machine with the use of detecting means to check out quantity of material filled into capsules body (Fig. 1; column 7, lines 43-61 and abstract).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified applicant's admitted prior art by the use of detecting means, as suggested by Trebbi, in order to control and measure the exact needed quantity to the capsules.

Regarding claims 2-5 and 9-12: Trebbi discloses the use of detecting means/checking means comprise checking disc, chambers, transducer means, closing and opening bottom of the chamber, control and processing unit, see for example (Figs. 1 and 2).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified applicant's admitted prior art by using of detecting means/checking means comprise checking disc, chambers, transducer means, closing and opening bottom of the chamber, control and processing unit, as suggested by Trebbi, in order to control and measure the exact needed quantity to the capsules.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 11/18/2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that the applied art of Trebbi does not disclose the means for detecting and volumetrically checking the quantity of pharmaceutical material filled into each capsule body as specifically claimed under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph. The examiner agrees that the applied art of Trebbi may not disclose an identical way of detecting and checking the quantity of the pharmaceutical material filled into each capsule, but the applied art discloses a similar and equivalent way of achieving the same result. The way Trebbi detect and check the filled pharmaceutical volume into capsule is equivalent to the claimed means as filed under 35 U.S.C. 112 sixth paragraph. Note that any applied art showing an equivalent elements to the once claimed under means for as 112, sixth paragraph, is capable of being used to reject such claimed means for under the 112, sixth paragraph.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
